however, collect a lot of building supplies for Solomon to use in the building of the temple.

It is thought that Solomon was 15 years old when he became king. King Solomon had a close relationship with King Hiram I of Tyre. They engaged in trade and became very wealthy. When he started the temple, he had an architect also named Hiram. This was the first temple and contained the Ark of the Covenant. We are not sure of its exact location. The first temple was totally destroyed in 586 BCE by the Babylonian army and the Ark of the Covenant disappeared. Harrison Ford did not find it. The temple may have been buried during the building of the second temple. Or maybe it is under the Temple Mount controlled by the Muslins who recognize King Solomon as a prophet.

King Solomon had 700 wives and 300 concubines. Many wives worshiped other false gods and led Solomon astray. He allowed temples to be built to these false gods. God warned Solomon and punished him by allowing the kingdom to split after his death.

He had a brief relationship with the Queen of Sheba. We are not sure where she came from. But Ethiopia claims her and claims that she had a son by Solomon. They also claim that they have the Ark of the Covenant. Solomon died in 931 BCE at the age of 80. Then civil war split the kingdom.

Some historians believe that Solomon existed, but think that he was not near as rich and powerful as the accounts in the holy scriptures. There is almost no physical evidence of his kingdom. However; we can learn much from the stories of King Solomon.

And call a brother.

Fraternally,

Richard Garrett Worshipful Master, Hill City 456 Brethren,

This past month at lodge was a busy one for us. We were fortunate enough to have another candidate turn in their Entered Apprentice work and continue to seek more light in Masonry. A few week later he was passed to the degree of Follow Craft with the help of our amazing degree team. I love seeing new member of the craft work towards improving themselves in Masonry!

I also wanted to take this time to tell y'all how excited I was to see so many brothers and their family at this months stated meeting! We had an amazing turn out and some incredible music by Brother Joe Kindred. We also had an amazing dinner of pork roast, green beans, potatoes and tomatoes prepared by our fantastic stewards Shawn Williams and Nick Grossman. I can't express how happy it makes me to see so many active members coming back into lodge after the year we just had. Let's keep up the energy so we can have more of our brothers join us in the upcoming months.

I hope to see more of the Brothers show up for our upcoming called and stated meetings. I know the uptick in Covid cases might impact our attendance but please keep in mind that our number one concern in the safety of our Brethren in this lodge. If you don't feel safe or comfortable with attending lodge or if you feel under the weather in any way, please do not attend.

Fraternally,

Elan Mendoza, Senior Warden, Hill City 456

Masonic Education

EA Work List

While collecting some content for the expanded/enhanced Hill City Lodge content repository I ran across something I first read four or five years ago, written by the eminent Brother John S. Nagy. It speaks to our core aim of helping good men, who may be young and inexperienced in some areas, to be better men as well as Masons. I considered it very thought-provoking then and still do today so I thought I would share it with the Lodge. For now I'll just share the original text and let each of you create his own Masonic education. We may revisit some of these points in future.

My experience tells me that Masons who have done the "Work of the First Degree*" are far less Vulnerable and far less likely to be Exploited. My experience also tells me that far too many Freemasons are Vulnerable and are very likely Exploited. The troubles faced by the entire Fraternity are of its own self-sabotage. Very few Brothers have completed the Work to which the First Degree alludes. They advance prematurely because they have fulfilled requirements that make them better members, not better men; and we allow it! That incompletion of Work and premature advancement sets them up to being exploited; and our Fraternity as well. They have not developed within themselves what is required to lessen and even prevent Exploitation. What's more, collectively, we do this to our own Brothers by allowing this Work to go undone.

But don't take my word on this. Assess your own experiences and ask yourself, "If I had done the EA Foundational Work myself, would I be better at dealing Effectively with opportunities that exploit me?"

-- Dr. John S. Nagy

Brethren,

How 'bout them Freemasons in Austin! OK, sorry if that subtle allusion to the Dallas Cowboys offends anyone.

This month I wanted to share my observations across Austin and our District that I truly find encouraging and exciting. I talked in my "Forget Me Not" Masonic Education article last year about the need to boost Masonry following the huge negative impact of the pandemic. Here are some strong signs that that is occurring around Austin. Our own weekly attendance at Hill City Lodge is definitely trending upward and we hear anecdotally from others Lodge of similar trends. Our execution of the Bring a Brother Back program is working as shown by the appearance of several Brothers we had not seen in a while.

At the District 50 MWSA meeting on 28 July, our DDGM, RW Charles Maddox reported that our attendance that evening of 30+ represented a higher percentage of participation of principal officers than in most other Districts including much larger Districts in the Houston and Dallas area. We also heard that Hill City conferred 13 degrees in the past year, leading the District. BTW, our RW Brother Secretary was elected VP of the MWSA for the ensuing Masonic year.

Speaking of growth, the Reunion of the Austin Valley of Scottish Rite, held on 10 July, had 24 candidates receiving their 4th though 32nd degrees, which was a very strong class. Those candidates included our own Nick Grossman. York Rite also did very well at it Festival for Chapter and Council degrees on 31 July. Tis was a joint Festival of Austin- and Leander-based Chapters and Councils. Candidates included in that class from Hill City Lodge were Ryan Divincenzo, Mark Huerta and myself.

The good news continues as Hill City has two new petitions in progress. This year is looking to be very exciting. We will continue to let you know what is going on through the Hill City Light and are also enhancing the lodge website http://hillcitylodge.org with more blog posts, a photo gallery, and downloadable copies of past Hill City Light newsletter. If you have suggestions for how the Lodge can better serve and encourage attendance, please contact us at communications@hillcitylodge.org.
