If my count is right, seven different generations are active in our lodge. Each of these different generations has their own set of rules and values. Each generation wants everybody else to look and act the same exact way they do. Each generation's rules and values are more than likely to be in conflict with the generation before them and the one after them. I am proud that in Hill City Lodge we all meet of the level! I was unable to attend the November Stated Meeting so our Senior Warden, Aaron Evans, presided as WM pro-tem. I think it was his first time up on the stage and I jokingly hope that it was hot and noisy up there as it has been so far this year. Our Secretary read a petition for the Mysteries and the Lodge elected PM Lee Kinser to serve as proxy during Grand Lodge this year. Grand Lodge will open on January 17th and will be in session through the 19th. Finally, some of the brothers are meeting on Tuesdays after supper to work on obtaining proficiency certificates. If you wish to learn the work or are rusty come down and join the crowd. I hope to see you in Lodge. Bob Wheeless, P.M. Worshipful Master, Hill City 456	 Greetings, Brethren. We're off to another good month at Hill City, and for Masonry here in District 50. We have received another petition for the mysteries, with additional new brethren coming up behind that, providing us with more opportunities to improve our degree work. Not only is there more than enough opportunity for the brethren of Hill City to practice their esoteric work, but at this point, we could use the help. I've hoped to see us have fully rostered and prepared degree teams (with well-practiced backups ready to step in) and soon we're going need it. Degree work is incredibly important because not only do we use it to grow the foundation of our lodge, but we use it to grow unselves (by becoming reinitiated when we study the work). Hill City is co-sponsoring a District 50 open-house with Austin and University Lodges on November 17th from 11 am to 3. This takes place in the parking lot of Scottish Rite before tailgating of a UT football game. University Lodge is generously renting extra tailgating space and providing food and libations. In the past, it's been difficult to attract attendance for Masonic open houses here in Austin (because it's difficult and expensive to be noticed in this city). I'm particularly eroited about this opportunity because tailgating brings the crowd to us (and the worst-case scenario is rather than sitting around in an empty building we get food and plenty of pre-game excitement). We hope every member of the Lodge able to make it will join us for the fun and the opportunity to speak with anyone interested in the craft). On November Stated Meeting, we discussed what Masonry can do for the mental health of veterans. Masons from district 50 are forming a local support group, which will regularly meet with refreshments and space provided by Austin lodges. Vets from every lodge are invited to participate if interested.

There are very few times when the public at large has the opportunity to see members of the Masonic fraternity dressed in white aprons and officers jewels conducting Masonic rites. We are able to proudly present ourselves as Masons for all to see during the conduct of MASONIC Funerals and during the traditional leveling of cornerstones of public buildings. The symbolic leveling of a cornerstone is an ancient	demonstrate the respect and brotherly love and affection that cements our fraternity into one common bond. At a time when the family and community are feeling the loss of a loved one, the Masonic funeral is a rite that openly demonstrates for all to see and hear that we as a body deeply care about our fellow man and lodge brother. It is a comfort to the family to know that Brother Masons stand ready to pay last respects at the grave site or memorial service and that they share in the loss of cornerstone and the importance it has played down through the ages in the Bible. From those writings we find passages that are a part of the Masonic rites and expressions that are used when we level the cornerstone of a public building to this very day. In Amos 7.7 we read, "The Lord stood upon a wall made with a plumb line, with a plumb line in his hand. And the Lord said unto me, Amos, What seest thou? And I said, A plumb line. Then said the Lord, Behold, I will set a plumb line in the midst of my people Israel: I will not again pass by them anymore." In Isaiah 28:16 we read, "Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a	 Hill City Lodge conducts at least one Masonic service during most months. Due to the advanced age of a Brother or family situation it is sometimes necessary to furnish six pall bearers as well as the five officers of the funeral. The expression of gratitude and words of thanks from the family members make the time spent in attending so very worthwhile.  have a sure foundation on which to build eternal life in that House not made by human hands, Eternal in the Heavens. Throughout the years, we as Masons, have leveled the cornerstones of countless thousands of churches, schools, lodges and various public buildings. It is a time when Masons have the public spotlight and can demonstrate openly the high moral, social and ethical standards by which our fraternity is governed. It gives us a chance to voice the fact that Masonry is founded upon the principle of always being a just and upright person. And lastly it provides a lasting physical reminder to the community and the people who occupy the building that Masonry has charged them to distinguish the building with integrity, impeccable reputation and outstanding service. 	Saturday November 17 is a Huge Day in Masonry in the District 50. There will be a big Open House and a Masonic Tailgate for the UT game. The tailgate is hosted by University Lodge 1190 and will be held in the Scottish Rite parking lot beginning at 10 am. Lots of food and fun! This is open to friends and families. Bring your lawn chairs and you can bring stuff to throw on the grill. The game is an evening game beginning at 6pm against Iowa State. The tailgate will compliment a huge open house event of Lodges 12, 456, and 1190, and the Scottish Rite bodies. The Open Houses will be 1-3pm. The Scottish Rite and the York Rite buildings will be set up for the open Houses. Visitors will be encouraged to visit both buildings for tours and information about masonry and to also visit the tailgate. Hope to see y'all there !

Sad Statistics about Veterans- There are approximately 20 million veterans.	Fall is finally here. The days are getting shorter, the temperatures are cooling off, but there is still a lot going on at Hill City!
 45 of every 100,000 veterans ages 18-34 committed suicide in 2016 – up from around 40 a year earlier. The VA found that there were more than 6,000 veteran suicides each year from 2008 to 2016. 	We recently initiated another brand new EA on October 23rd and I am happy to report that he is progressing very quickly. I anticipate an FC degree in the near future.
